New Rainworth Memorial Dedicated

On 5th September the new memorial was dedicated in the grounds of St Simon and St Jude's Church in Rainworth, near Mansfield

The Dedication was led by the Rainworth, Blidworth & District Branch of the Royal British Legion. The service was led by Rev Hazel Robinson and the Homily was given by the Archdeacon of Newark, the Very Reverend Nigel Peyton. The Lord Lieutenant of Nottinghamshire, Sir Andrew Buchanan BT, unveiled the Memorial and wreaths were laid after a 2 minute silence

As a local community project it is fitting that the Rainworth Memorial should be sited in the grounds of the St Simon & St Judes Church. The Memorial is dedicated to all those who have fallen in the service of our country. Many conflicts were not classified as wars, such as Malaya, Borneo, Palestine, Cyprus, Suez, Northern Ireland, Aden - to list but a few. There are no names on this Memorial as individual names can be seen in the Book Of Remembrance, always on display inside the Church

The Memorial unveiled in the result of alot of planning and fund raising and it is to the community's credit, with the help of the Nottinghamshire Building Better Communities, local councils and councillors, local businesses and many individuals, that the project target of £12,000 was reached

The Rainworth, Blidworth & District Branch of the Royal British Legion will be attending an Armistice Day service at the new Memorial on Thursday 11th November at 11am "
