

A horizontal banner with a dark, textured background featuring a grid pattern. The words "Millennium Project" are written in a light-colored, serif font across the center.

Millennium Project

This took place during the week of the 6th November through to the 12th
November 2000.

We had various events taking place,

Starting at the Market Harborough Parish Church St.
Dionysus.

7 P.M. 6th November 2000 ,

With a Church service and Band Concert, proceeding
to the Memorial Gates where the Memorial Garden
Gates opened and the weeks events started.

The Poppy Appeal Stand was in the Market on the,
7,10,11,12 of November 2000.

On the 8th November 2000, We presented the town with the "Books of Remembrance" that we had been researching throughout the year.

This could not have been achieved without help from the War Graves Commission and various people around the area giving help with information and memories of those concerned.

On Saturday the 11th November 2000, The 2 Minutes Silence was observed at the Welland Park Memorial at 10:15 A.M. as well as the 11:00 A.M. Silence At the Memorial Gates .

In the evening there was a Band Concert by the Market Harborough Band taking place at the Baptist Church. This event was sold out.

To finish of the celebrations there was the Remembrance Sunday Service at the Market Harborough Parish Church St. Dionysus. 10:45 A.M. 12th November 2000.