ABOUT

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire is the nation's year round centre of Remembrance outside London. Part of the Legion family of charities, the 150-acre site is filled with trees, plants and memorials to people who died before their time. A poignant and inspiring place to visit all year round. ## LIFELONG SUPPORT FOR OUR ARMED FORCES

We help members of the Royal Navy, British Army, Royal Air Force, Reservists, veterans and their families all year round.

We also campaign to improve their lives, organise the Poppy Appeal and remember the fallen.

HOW WE HELP

The Royal British Legion is a national charity helping people in local communities. Find us online at www.britishlegion.org.uk or call us on 0808 802 8080 for more information.

The Legion provides information, advice and guidance to help the Armed Forces community find and access the support they need.

Though we're a national organisation, we work in local communities across the UK, delivering information, advice and support where it is needed most, including outreach services for the most vulnerable. Whether it's money worries, a seaside break with the family, careers advice after Service, independent living or care in later life, we're here to help.

We've rolled out online self-help tools and launched a new freephone helpline. We've also opened high street information and advice centres in cities across the UK, located close to Service communities. The high street centres mean beneficiaries can now access our support services as easily as popping to the shops.

SUPPORT US

We help people every day of the year but we only raise about a third of the money we need through the Poppy Appeal. We rely on the help of brilliant supporters who take part in fundraising activities and challenge events for us all year round, as well as raising money at community events and fairs. ## GET INVOLVED

Volunteers are the lifeblood of the Legion - we are always looking for people who can give practical assistance, time or support in their local communities, whether it's collecting for the Poppy Appeal or offering direct help to the Armed Forces community.

CAMPAIGNING

We often call on members of the public to add their voice to our campaigns to improve the lives of the Armed Forces community. Get involved and help us make a difference.
