

LOOKING FOR A CAREER AFTER SERVICE?

We know that adjusting to civilian life after a career in the Armed Forces can be difficult, but we've got lots of ways to make that transition easier.

CIVVY STREET

Our CivvyStreet website has hundreds of job vacancies, as well as access to free online courses to help you improve your job prospects or get a more fulfilling job. All you need to do is sign up for free membership at www.civvystreet.org

SORTED!

The Legion is working with six other charities to bring expert employment support to the Armed Forces community at the click of a button. To find out more visit www.sorted.org.uk

“Through the help of SORTED! charities... I found steady employment, developed my confidence and was able to showcase the range of transferable military skills I had to secure full time employment as a maintenance engineer.”

HOW TO FIND US

You can find out more by visiting our online advice centre www.britishlegion.org.uk, calling 0808 802 8080, or popping in to one of the Legion information centres that have opened across the country.

INDEPENDENT LIVING

We want to make sure that our beneficiaries are able to live with dignity, whether that is in their own home or one of our care homes.

ADMIRAL NURSES

Caring for a loved one with dementia can be a challenging experience. The Legion's Admiral Nurse Service supports family carers to navigate the dementia journey by giving practical support and advice.

BENEFITS ADVICE

We'll help you access the most relevant information, whether that's a simple check to make sure you have all the benefits you're entitled to, or support at tribunals if you feel your benefits have been withdrawn unfairly.

“The advice and support that my nurse has provided has helped me care for Albert at home, which is something I wanted to do.”

HANDY VAN SERVICE

We have a dedicated and trusted team trained to carry out small home repairs such as fitting smoke alarms or fixing grab rails to help you get around in your home safely.

CARE HOMES

Our Care Homes are a real home from home where our residents can feel comfortable for as long as they stay. All our homes are exclusive to ex-Service people and their dependants, giving them a unique camaraderie.
